

Quest is now a Cadgroup Company

Sydney, May 5, 2023 Quest Construction Software Pty Ltd and Cadgroup Australia Pty Ltd Announced their Merger to Create a Leader in Australian AEC (Architectural, Engineering and Construction) Design and Operations Software Solutions.

Quest and Cadgroup two leading software service providers, are pleased to announce their merger, creating a leader in the Australian market. Cadgroup will combine the strengths and resources of both companies to drive innovation, expand market reach, and deliver enhanced value to customers, employees, and shareholders.

The merger brings together Quest's software implementation expertise in construction and Cadgroup's leadership in design and manufacturing software, creating a comprehensive and diversified team that will serve a wide range of customers and markets throughout Australia. The combined company will have an expanded product portfolio, increased geographic presence, and a larger customer base, positioning it as a dominant player in the design, manufacturing and construction software industry.

“We have increased Cadgroup’s service and support offering to include the growing Australian construction technology market. With Eric Silcott’s leadership, Cadgroup is in position to build on our current strength of Customer-First Focus using the best technologies in market,” says Ibrahim Thanawalla (Managing Director, Cadgroup)

“With Cadgroup’s depth in the architectural and manufacturing technology space, the industry now has a technology partner that spans three major disciplines – able to support start-ups to tier-one businesses across Australia. We are excited to expand to a truly national business, now with representation in every state,” says Eric Silcott, (Founder, Quest)

The merger is expected to create synergies and efficiencies through the consolidation of operations, procurement, and other functions, resulting in enhanced competitiveness and profitability. The combined company will also invest in research and development to drive innovation and bring new products and solutions to the market, further strengthening its position as an Australian leader in the industry.
